Course number and section: FREN 123.001

Course Topic: Intermediate French II

Credits: 3

Term: Winter Term 2

Instructor: Alexandra Tonnel

Course Description:

Intermediate level course - completes level B1 of the CEFR. Continuation of FREN 122. Refinement of reading, writing, and speaking skills through the study of contemporary literature and other authentic documents of the French-speaking world. It is built on a communicative approach to language acquisition where the learning and the assessments are task-based. This course will put emphasis on developing students' opinions on different topics such as cinema, work, studies, advertising, and news. Students are expected to be able to interact in French in a limited set of situations and get a grasp on the intermediate notions of the grammar of French (parts of speech, agreements, conjugation, tenses, spelling, pronunciation, etc.). Prerequisite: French 12 or any A2 level course. Not suitable for French immersion students.
