

Course Description Form

Course number and section: KORN 100 (001)

Course Topic: Basic Korean I

Credits: 3

Term: Winter 2023, Term 1

Instructor: Meilan P. Ehlert

Course Description:

Basic Korean I is designed for absolute beginners to develop the four language skills - speaking, listening, reading and writing - in Korean. This course covers the basic grammatical structures and vocabulary necessary for basic conversation, reading comprehension, and writing to have the students build a solid foundation in Korean language. It also provides useful information concerning culture and everyday life in Korea. < This course is NOT available to students who have obtained the equivalent of CEFR Level A1 in Korean. Heritage Korean speakers and students completed high beginner Korean courses will not receive credits from this course. >

Main textbook and workbooks:

This course covers lessons 1 to 8 of Elementary Korean, 2nd Edition.

1. Elementary Korean (2nd edition, 2014) by Ross KING and Jae-Hoon YEON, Tuttle Publishing. ISBN: 978-0-8048-4498-7
2. Elementary Korean Workbook (2nd edition, 2014) by Insun LEE, Tuttle Publishing. ISBN: 978-0-8048-4502-1

Other: TBA in the first class.