

Course Description

Course number and section: VISA 255 001

Course Topic: Introduction to Printmaking: Linocut and Letter Press Printing

Instructor: Briar Craig

Course Description:

Introduction to the printmaking processes – relief printing and text-based letterpress printing. Focus is on gaining familiarity with these processes and on personal imagery. Basic drawing skills are an asset.

Other: This course is largely drawing-based. Students will learn how to develop hand-drawn works through the medium of linocut printing; and, will learn the basics of printing texts using a letterpress and lead type.