

Course Descriptions

Course number and section: THTR 103

Course Topic: Acting For Stage and Screen

Instructor: Denise Kenney

Course Description:

Acting for Stage and Screen is an introduction to acting techniques for stage and screen, equipping students with the physical, vocal, emotional and intellectual tools for improvisation, character development, and the enactment of theatre and film scripts. It includes in-person practical exercises on and off camera, as well as lectures, workshops, screenings, discussions and written work, and learning is structured to simulate the various stages of rehearsal and production.